

CHELOURANYAN CALENDAR FOR YEAR 3335
YEAR OF SAI RHAVË

If thou wouldst find union with our Mother, know that thou hast never left Her.

If thou wouldst escape the veil of matter, know that there is no matter and no veil.

~Cry Marya

KEY TO CALENDAR

The Days of the Week

In the Chelouranyan calendar, the days begin at Sunrise. On this calendar, the Janyatic glyphs, the Chelouranyan names, and the Japanese kanji for the days of the week are shown. They correspond to the following days in English. As this is the year of Sai Rhavë, the first day of the week this year is Rhavedi, 土曜日, or Saturday.

- ⊕ Rhavedi, 土曜日 (doyoubi, “Earth Day”) – Saturday
- ⊙ Rayadi, 日曜日 (nichiyoubi, “Sun Day”) – Sunday
- ☾ Candredi, 月曜日 (getsuyoubi, “Moon Day”) – Monday
- ♂ Vikhedi, 火曜日 (kayoubi, “Fire Day”) – Tuesday
- ♀ Matidi, 水曜日 (suiyoubi, “Water Day”) – Wednesday
- ♃ Thamedi, 木曜日 (mokuyoubi, “Wood Day”) – Thursday
- ♀ Sucridi, 金曜日 (kinyoubi, “Gold Day”) – Friday

Holidays

The holidays are marked with colored background. High Festivals are marked with pink, and Low Festivals are marked with blue. Holy Days within Moura are marked in gray. After the last day of Moura is Hiatus, which, in the Filianic tradition, the Daughter is dead, and nothing exists. Hiatus is not marked on the calendar, and the New Year is always a surprise!

Astrological Information

There is a cover page before each season, which gives pertinent information for each season, and this page includes the planetary zodiac positions for the first day of the month of the change of seasons. On the first day of each month, the zodiac position of Sai Candre (“the Moon”) is shown in the upper left hand corner, and throughout the month, Sai Candre’s ingress into each sign during that month is similarly marked.

The Candric phases are in the upper right hand corner and are marked using Japanese kanji. The kanji for the Candric phases are as follows:

New Moon – 新月; shingetsu

1st Quarter Moon – 上弦の月; jougen no tsuki; “Upper Bowstring Moon”

Full Moon – 満月; mangetsu

3rd Quarter Moon – 下弦の月; kagen no tsuki; “Lower Bowstring Moon”

Other information, such as Eclipses and the ingress of the other planets into each sign, is noted near the bottom of the page (or above the Holiday name, if it is a Holiday)

SPRING 春 3335

EASTRE

For the truth is such that a child may understand it, yet the sage, if she have not simplicity and love, may struggle for it all of her life and at the end have nothing.

What is your truth if it cannot be shared with a child?

For in the eyes of Eternity, how little is the space between an infant and the wisest of the world.

~The Way of Simplicity

Element – Water

Direction – East

Candric Phase – New Moon 新月

Time of Day – Sunrise
